HOW TO STAY YOUNG.

Will Power a Large Factor in Keeping Away Decreptitude.

[Milwaukee Journal.]

How old are you? The adage says that women are as old as they look and men as old as they feel. That's wrong. A man and woman are as old as they take themselves to be.

Growing old is largely a habit of the mind. "As a man thinketh in his heart so is he." If he begins shortly after middle age to imagine himself growing old he will be old.

To keep oneself from decrepitude is somewhat a matter of will power. The fates are kind to the man who hangs on to life with both hands. He who lets go will go. Death is slow only to tackle the tenacious.

Ponce de Leon searched in the wrong place for the fountain of youth. It is in oneself. One must keep oneself young inside, so that while "the outer man" perishes the inner man is renewed day by day.

When the human mind ceases to exert itself, when there is no longer an active interest in the affairs of this life, when the human stops reading and thinking and doing, the man, like a blasted tree, begins to die at the top.

You are as old as you think you are. Keep the harness on. Your job is not done.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all of its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

The December Smart Set.

The feature of the December Smart Set is undoubtedly the novelette, "Clavering and His Daughter," a story of Washington life, by a new author, Foxcroft Davis, whose meteoric entrance into the field of fiction is likely to be the sensation of the season. Totally unknown, this writer's first manuscript was not only accepted on sight by one of the most conservative publishing houses in America, but two new books were contracted for to form a series of three, all on the National politics and society centering at Washington. Meanwhile the Smart Set has secured the first work to be published under the name of Foxcroft Davis—a story of a remarkable man and a remarkable woman in the interesting setting of life at the Nation's capital, which no author has yet known so intimately and vitally. The appearance of this story is an event.

Sense and Nonsense.

That every ancient joke of the man who is accused of being indifferent to his wife, to the effect that "You never run after the street car after you have caught it," has been answered by Herbert Kelsey, the actor. The very happy married life of this player and his fellow player and wife, Elsie Shannon, is well known. Mr. Kelsey says you may "catch the car," but he adds "you may fall off."

In this connection Mr. Kelsey also suggests the following unlucky number of methods of winning a wife and keeping a wife. Try it out and see if it fits your case:

1. Be considerate of her in small things. Small things make up a woman's life.
2. Remember always that everywhere in the animal kingdom kind and not sex makes difference in brain.
3. Need her and let her know it. Women understand best that it is more blessed to give than to receive.
4. Let her feel before, and particularly after marriage that she is more important than your business. You wouldn't care to be supplanted in her thoughts by constant musing over that $3.17 that slipped through her hands yesterday.
5. Before marriage kiss her as though she were your wife—afterwards kiss her as though she were your sweetheart.
6. Never abuse her confidence. Her faith in you is capital, which you will have to invest many times.
7. Compel her respect. Respect is the mother and admiration the father of love.
8. Take an interest in her affairs. You would be hurt if she took no interest in yours.
9. Devote at least a quarter of the thought to entertaining her during a lifetime that you would devote to entertaining her pretty sister half an hour.
10. Don't "nag." Men nag as much as women, and vaccination, the slow scraping away of the skin, pains more than the quick incision of the surgeon's knife.
11. Remember that she is the better half of yourself, and "to thine own self be true."
12. Be generous, not lavish. When she is your wife she is your partner.

HALL'S Hair Renewer

A splendid tonic for the hair, makes the hair grow long and heavy. Always restores color to gray hair, all the dark, rich color of youth. Stops falling hair, also. Sold for fifty years.

Never compel her to ask for money. A woman feels dependence as much as a man would.

I have devoted as much attention to the subject of winning the woman you have won as to winning the woman you haven't. It is more important to keep the love of your wife than to create love in the object of your attentions. Eternal vigilance is the price of eternal affection.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root. Also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
